Mirai Software Development

fullstack web developer freelancer-(Co-founder)

March 2018 to august 2023

At Mirai Software Development, we craft cutting-edge web applications using technologies like React, Redux, Next.js, TypeScript, and Docker. Our team pushes the boundaries of what's possible in web development, shaping the future of technology. We also leverage tools like GitHub for collaboration, SCSS/Sass for stylish designs, and testing frameworks like Testing RTL for code reliability. Our expertise extends to Node.js, MySQL, MongoDB, REST API, and GraphQL for seamless data management. Together, we're on an exhilarating journey, driving innovation in the web development industry.

Pets IA

Front-end Developer December 2020 to setember 2023 part-time

Since I've been working part-time as a front-end developer at Pets IA. Collaborating with a talented team, our goal is to create a captivating website for pet lovers. Using Vue and TypeScript, I bring visually stunning and intuitive web pages to life, celebrating our love for furry companions.

Dev launchers

Front-end Developer

March 2022 to setepmber 2023
part-time

I've also joined Dev Launchers as a part-time full-stack web developer. In this role, I engage in project management and prioritize customer satisfaction. Alongside a dedicated team, we undertake exciting projects for clients, turning their visions into reality. Utilizing technologies like Next.js, Node.js, Strapi and Docker, we build dynamic web solutions that exceed client expectations.

VIP SEGURO

Fulltack Developer

April 2022 to present

full-time

As a Full Stack Developer at VIP Seguro, my responsibilities extend to deploying and maintaining the robust betting platform. I specialize in designing intuitive layouts using React for the front end and Adonis for the backend, ensuring a seamless user experience. Leveraging various deployment technologies and frameworks, I streamline the release and management of our applications, contributing to the continuous enhancement and optimization of VIP Seguro's online betting services and others plataforms. webpage: <https://vipbet.digital/>
